

Press Release

February 10th, 2014

Tahincioglu Real Estate Supports 3rd International Green Buildings Summit

Tahincioglu Real Estate, under the spotlight with its projects developed within the scope of sustainable and eco-friendly approach has become a silver sponsor to "3rd International Green Buildings Summit". Tahincioglu Real Estate will meet the participants at the stand no. 8, at the summit where sustainability and renewable energy in buildings, eco-friendly approach and innovations in green building systems will be evaluated.

Tahincioglu Real Estate proving its achievements and expertise with projects implemented in the fields of commercial real estate and housing will attend to "International Green Buildings Summit" which will be held for the third time this year on 20 - 21 February by Turkish Green Building Council (CEDBIK). At the "Sustainability-Crossing Limits" themed summit, the subjects of renewable energy technologies, sustainability, green financing, local governments, NGOs and trade associations, green building rating systems, material-innovation, building regulations, incentives, regulations, sustainable cities and communities will be assessed in company with local and foreign speakers.

Tahincioglu Real Estate will bring the projects based on energy efficiency and sustainability and the participants together.

In the organization of over 40 sessions to which more than 100 speakers whom specialized in their own fields will attend the current sustainable projects from Turkey and all around the world will be shared with participants.

Tahincioglu has applications for "Leed Gold" certification for its projects in Turkey more than any other applicants. The company will present mainly Nidakule Goztepe, Palladium Tower office projects as well as the housing project in Nidapark Seyrantepe keeping environmental awareness, energy conservation and intelligent building systems at the maximum levels at the stand no. 8.

For Detailed Information

Hande Olgac / hande@manifesto.tc / 0554 449 99 01

Merve Didisen / merve@manifesto.tc / 0507 789 89 01