

Tahincioğlu Real Estate Received Awards in Two Fields with Palladium Tower Ataşehir and Palladium Antakya Mall Projects in “European Property Awards 2013” Competition

Tahincioğlu Real Estate, which brings in A Plus and prestigious projects to real estate sector, received awards with “Palladium Tower” and “Palladium Antakya Mall” projects, in “European Property Awards 2013” competition that selects best real estate projects in the world.

Tahincioğlu Real Estate, which stands out with exemplary projects that invest in future with sustainable energy and environmental sensibility, received two awards in “Office Development” category with Palladium Tower Ataşehir for Turkey and “Retail Development” category with Palladium Antakya Mall for Turkey.

A remarkable investor in Commercial Real Estate, Tahincioğlu Real Estate has been granted two awards with Palladium Tower Ataşehir and Palladium Antakya Mall projects, in “European Property Awards 2013” competition, which is one of the most prestigious Real Estate awards.

Tahincioğlu Real Estate, which is a driver in real estate sector with its sustainable projects, participated into “European Property Awards 2013” that brings together top international real estate project developers in a distinguished platform. Tahincioğlu stood out amongst several projects from all around the world and received awards for “Office Development with Palladium Tower for Turkey” with its 43-Floor A Plus Office Project, Palladium Tower Ataşehir built in Ataşehir, the new financial center of İstanbul “Retail Development with Palladium Antakya Mall for Turkey” with the Mall built in Hatay, Antakya.

European Property Awards aims to promote real estate industry worldwide and set the ground for international quality standards with selected prestigious projects; it awards projects from Asia Pacific, Africa, America, Europe, England, Arab countries, the Caribbean and Canada, within international standards in different categories. The winner of each participating region competes later in “International Property Awards”, which selects the best projects of the world at the end of the year.